

MARIA KOVADI
FINE JEWELLERY

CREATIVE DIRECTOR

Maria Kondakova-Kaltsidis is a creative jewellery designer whose passion is to create unique jewellery pieces with the aim of provoking a thoughtful response in the soul of the wearer and delighting the eye with its aesthetics. A Central Saint Martins and GIA graduate, winner of the Lonmin Design Innovation award in platinum jewellery and Cool Diamonds runner-up, Maria fell in love with the world of jewellery design in Italy, where currently all Maria Kovadi Fine Jewellery designs are made by the most outstanding craftsmen. Italian aesthetics are blended with cutting edge design and her Russian soul, open to embracing everything new.

Born in Moscow, Maria spent her childhood there, growing up in a family which enjoyed travelling and exploring new places. This instilled curiosity and passion, which Maria begun to express through art and later, jewellery. Her design signature is evident in timeless and sustainable creations, which reflect strong multicultural influences gained during travels and living in different countries. Maria loves to work with clients wishing to create something special or to create pieces tailored to a certain occasion, theme or to produce designs with particular stones. She is open to clients' feedback, as it generates a two-way communication resulting in couture-like pieces that hold a special place in the heart of the client.
