TELL ME COLLECTION

'Tell Me' collection will be exclusively unveiled at Baselworld 2016.

You are invited to be one of the first people to view this collection and choose your ending to the story. Express yourself through interactive and personalised jewellery in the Tell Me collection. Create a sentence with colourful rings and enjoy the beautiful earrings adorned with the stones of your choice.

Actions speak louder than words. Choose your story, your adventure and your happy ending. The collection is designed to initiate communication and interaction. Whether directing your story or sending a message with fine jewellery, the collection emphasizes the importance of communication and action in a playful way. Express yourself through interactive jewellery with numerous combinations available to spell out your message. For those with something particular in mind, a bespoke story can be created.
